QUESTIONS 41 – 50: Read the text and choose the best answers.

In Britain, wedding invitations go out about six weeks before the wedding day. The guests reply as soon as possible to say if they can come or not. Choosing a present for the couple can be difficult. People don't take their presents for the wedding. They send them to the woman's house before the wedding day. Most weddings take place before lunch or in the early afternoon. Many people like to get married in church. The bride often wears a long white dress. Guests wear their best clothes and most of the women wear hats. In the church, the bride's family sits on the left and the groom's one sits on the right. Married people wear their wedding rings on the third finger of the left hand. Most married women wear wedding rings, but married men often do not.

Body language

Many people believe the way to really know somebody is to understand what they mean when they're saying (41) ..... at all! This is the science of (42) ..... body language. In (43) ....., learning how to recognize body language and how to use it to communicate your own message, is big business. Nowadays there are hundreds of books written on the subject.

Experts are even going into companies to talk to employees about how to perform better. They suggest that this can be done with a few changes in their body-talk. Welcoming body language, for example, ought to include giving a friendly nod to say hello and leaning forward slightly to show you want to listen. The problem is, (44) ..... more we understand body language, the more able we are to change it if we want to. This means that realizing when somebody is (45) ..... a lie is more difficult than it used to be!
